

QUIZ GAME

INSTRUCTIONS

SET UP:

- You will need an LCD projector and a computer with Powerpoint and the Quiz game file loaded on the computer
- Add appropriate information under the "Grab Bag" category including
 - » Contact information for RA
 - » Contact information for Counseling Center or other resource on campus which can provide assistance with sexual assault, dating violence or stalking
 - » Contact information for campus police or security
- Project the first slide on the Quiz Game powerpoint
- Designate a scorekeeper (provide scorekeeper with paper and pen to keep track of score for each team) and a judge/game administrator (the person who will advance the slides and have the power to make final decisions on all disputes, disagreements or arguments (ah, the power!!))
- Divide participants into three to four teams. Have each team elect a spokesperson.
- Have each team come up with a team name, a mascot and a slogan.

TO PLAY:

- Introduce the scorekeeper and the "judge"
- Have each team spokesperson introduce the team and give their name, mascot and slogan
- Explain how the game works (see below)
- Say: "Earlier this year you watched an online educational video called Every Choice which talked about being an active bystander when faced with situations which might lead to sexual assault, dating violence or stalking. All the questions and answers in this game are related to that video.
- Decide which team will go first and allow them to choose the first category and point level (100-500)
- Click on the category level and read the question
- Each team has 15 seconds to come up with the answer and writes it down
- Each team then gives their answer
- Advance the slide one slide by clicking the mouse or using the forward arrow key on the keyboard to reveal the answer
- Every team which got the correct answer receives the appropriate points (100-500)
- Scorekeeper records the points
- One of the teams which got the correct answer chooses the next category/level
- The "judge/game administrator" advances the slides back to the home board by clicking on the house icon in the lower right corner of the answer slide.
- Game continues until all category/levels have been chosen (once a category/level has been chosen, it will turn from yellow to black)
- Team with highest score wins
- Give prizes if possible
